

FANTASY VS REALITY IN MARRIAGE

Abraham was now very old, and the Lord had blessed him in every way. He said to the senior servant in his household, the one in charge of all that he had, "Put your hand under my thigh. I want you to swear by the Lord, the God of heaven and the God of earth, that you will not get a wife for my son from the daughters of the Canaanites, among whom I am living, but will go to my country and my own relatives and get a wife for my son Isaac."

The servant asked him, "What if the woman is unwilling to come back with me to this land? Shall I then take your son back to the country you came from?"

"Make sure that you do not take my son back there," Abraham said. "The Lord, the God of heaven, who brought me out of my father's household and my native land and who spoke to me and promised me on oath, saying, 'To your offspring I will give this land'—he will send his angel before you so that you can get a wife for my son from there. If the woman is unwilling to come back with you, then you will be released from this oath of mine. Only do not take my son back there." Genesis 24:1-8

Endeavour to erase the unrealistic image in your mind so that you can wake up to the reality. The so-called matured people have probably had the chance to brush off the rough edges in the pruning school of the Holy Spirit through various unpleasant experiences in the early part of their marriage. I am not saying it is wrong to have a 'dream spouse', all I am saying is that you should not dream of who does not exist in reality.

There are times when the person you marry might not be able to overcome a specific attitude no matter how hard you try. In cases like this, the devil will want you to become the 'Holy Spirit'. Stop expecting too much from your spouse. Many people have become so miserable, because they are fighting battles that may never been won.

What some of us are looking for is not far from where we are; all we need do is operate in the reality and not in the fantasyland. Be real and stop deceiving yourself. Most of the time you may not find all the qualities you want in one person.

He who finds a wife finds a good thing. Find that good thing and make your marriage work (Prov. 18:22). Don't let anybody advice you wrongly when it comes to choosing a partner – don't be a victim of match making that will not last. When it comes to choosing; be real, and stop fantasizing.

WISDOM ARCADE

OH, MAGNIFY THE LORD WITH ME

1 Oh, magnify the Lord with me,
 Ye people of His choice,
 Let all to whom He lendeth breath
 Now in His name rejoice;
 For love's blest revelation,
 For rest from condemnation,
 For uttermost salvation
 To Him give thanks.

Refrain:

Let all the people praise Thee,
 Let all the people praise Thee!
 Let all the people praise Thy name
 Forever and evermore

2 Oh, praise Him for His holiness,
 His wisdom and His grace;
 Sing praises for the precious blood
 Which ransomed all our race;
 In tenderness He sought us,
 From depths of sin he brought us,
 The way of life then taught us,
 to Him give thanks. [Refrain]

3 Had I a thousand tongues to sing,
 The half could ne'er be told
 Of love so rich, so full and free,
 Of blessings manifold;
 Of grace that faileth never,
 Peace flowing like a river,
 From God the glorious Giver,
 To Him give thanks. [Refrain]

Let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, since as members of one body you were called to peace. And be thankful.
