WHEN MARRIAGE FACES DIFFICULT SEASONS

Every marriage will experience different seasons. Some seasons are filled with joy, laughter, and progress, while others may come with financial difficulties, health challenges, disappointments, or unexpected responsibilities.

During difficult times, it is easy for couples to become frustrated, withdraw emotionally, or begin blaming each other for their problems.
However, in Galatians 6:2, the Bible encourages us to bear one another's burdens.

Marriage is not just about enjoying the good times together; it is also about supporting one another through difficult seasons.
When your spouse is going through a challenging period, they may need your encouragement more than your criticism, your patience more than your complaints, and your understanding more than your judgement.
Instead of asking, “Why are you putting me through this?” learn to ask, “How can we work through this together?”
This does not mean ignoring harmful behaviour or enduring abuse. Serious problems may require professional help, wise counsel, and appropriate boundaries.

Remember, difficult seasons do not automatically mean your marriage has failed. With God's wisdom, honest communication, and mutual commitment, couples can learn to navigate challenges together.
A Christ-centred marriage is strengthened when both partners remember that they are on the same team, even when life becomes difficult.

ALONE WITH GOD

GRATITUDE

MONDAY: grateful for life. There's just one heartbeat between life and death. Only God gives and sustains life. Acts 17:25.

TUESDAY: Be grateful for the Word of God. His Word is our companion in any and every situation of life His Word is always Ye and Amen. I Pet. 1:23.

WEDNESDAY: Be grateful for the gift of Salvation. Nothing we do qualifies us for it. It's purely a gift of God. Titus 2:11.

THURSDAY: Be grateful for Tests and Trials, because they are the foundation of all your triumphs and testimonies. Rom. 9:3-5.

FRIDAY: Be grateful for Blessings, Food, clothing, shelter, friends, families, sunshines- there's always a blessing to be thankful for. Prov. 10:22.

SATURDAY: Be grateful for Freedom. We can be so used to liberty that we don't know how precious it is anymore. Not everyone is free, even to serve God. Col. 5:13.

SUNDAY: Be grateful for Hope. Because of Hope, we can look forward and expect better days to still come. Phil. 4:4-6.

HYMN

BLESSED ASSURANCE

1. Blessed assurance, Jesus is mine!
Oh, what a foretaste of glory divine!
Heir of salvation, purchase of God,
born of his Spirit, washed in his blood.

Refrain:
This is my story, this is my song,
praising my Savior all the day long.
This is my story, this is my song,
praising my Savior all the day long.

2 Perfect communion, perfect delight,
visions of rapture now burst on my sight.
Angels descending bring from above echoes of mercy, whispers of love.
[Refrain]

3 Perfect submission, all is at rest.
I in my Savior am happy and bless'd,
watching and waiting, looking above,
filled with his goodness, lost in his love.
[Refrain]
