FANTASSY VS REALITY IN MARRIAGE II

Abraham was now very old, and the Lord had blessed him in every way. He said to the senior servant in his household, the one in charge of all that he had, Put your hand under my thigh. I want you to swear by the Lord, the God of heaven and the God of earth, that you will not get a wife for my son from the daughters of the Canaanites, among whom I am living, but will go to my country and my own relatives and get a wife for my son Isaac. The servant asked him, “What if the woman is unwilling to come back with me to this land Shall I then take your son back to the country you came from?" "Make sure that you do not take my son back there, Abraham said. The Lord, the God of heaven, who brought me out of my father’s household and my native land and who spoke to me and promised me on oath, saying, To your offspring I will give this land—he will send his angel before you so that you can get a wife for my son from there. If the woman is unwilling to come back with you, then you will be released from this oath of mine. Only do not take my son back there. Genesis 24:1-8

Some of the marriages you admire today have gone through one coaching and grooming or the other.

There is always a horrible story behind every glory.

Some of the so called 'mature' and 'well-groomed people you admire have probably had the chance to smoothen their rough edges in the early part of their relationships.

Be careful of what you desire; make sure it is available. Don't desire what or who does not exist in reality. Know that there is no perfect marriage or relationship anywhere, because there are no prefect people; we all are striving towards perfection. Don't develop the picture of a flawless figure in your imagination, because such does not exist. Don't even compare your spouse with any other person.

Don't be crazy about the container only, be crazier about the content. Don't look for perfection when you're not perfect yourself. Let your standard be what is obtainable in reality. That admirable wife/husband of today might have some horrible stories he/she has not disclosed to you.

You cannot find a refined gold on the ground, because it takes a lot of process for gold to be refined. Refined gold was once in the dirt. If you know what the refined gold has gone through before becoming the precious metal that everybody now admires, you'll not go digging the ground looking for refined gold - Rom.8:5-6.
